THE ORDER OF THE SACRAMENT OF
Holy Matrimony

ACCORDING TO THE RITE OF THE
Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church

DIOCESE OF SOUTH-WEST AMERICA
A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE SERVICE

Holy Matrimony is the holy mystery in which man and woman work out their salvation by living according to the paradigm of the relationship between Christ, the True Bridegroom and the Holy Church, His Bride (Eph 5.32). True love is perfectly exemplified by Christ’s self-sacrifice, free-will obedience, and love for the Church (Eph 5:25). God created man and woman as fitting and complementary (Gen 2:23) companions (Gen 2:18) to be united together and become one (Gen 2:24). It is important to note that the iconographic hymns of the Sacrament of Matrimony according to the Syriac Orthodox tradition witness the intimate and loving relationship of Christ and the Church. This provides the exemplar for the groom and bride to consider how they ought to think, live, and commit to realizing in their own marriage.

As God blessed the union of Adam and Eve (Gen 1:28) and Christ blessed the wedding at Cana (Jn 2), God blesses the couple through the sacrament of marriage. Married life is a special vocation (1 Cor 7:17) and requires the blessings, grace, and gift from the Holy Spirit.

The Sacrament of Matrimony in the Syriac Orthodox tradition is comprised of two services, which were once separate: 1) Blessing of the Rings and 2) Blessing of the Crowns. The first service is a service of betrothal. The rings, which are a symbol of a contract, are blessed and placed on the groom and bride by the priest. In the second service, the priest blesses the crowns, which according to the Indian custom, are represented by a necklace with a cross pendant. The priest crowns the groom and bride signifying the establishment of a new family of which the man and wife are the king and queen of the new house church. The crowns symbolize both joy and martyrdom, as joy and self-sacrifice are inseparably tied together in true marriage. In the Sacrament of Matrimony, it is God’s representative, the priest, who places the rings and crowns the groom and bride as God is the One Who joins the groom and bride together (Mt. 19:6).

According to Indian custom, the groom ties the “thaali” or “minnu”, which is a small golden pendant, around the neck of the bride. It represents the life-long inseparable bond established in marriage. The groom then places the “manthrakodi” or veil upon the bride’s head, symbolizing his acceptance of his responsibility to care for and cherish his bride. The service concludes with the priest exhorting the worshipping community, joining the right hands of the groom and bride together thereby entrusting them to one another, and seeking the intercessions of the entire community, both living and departed.

THE FIRST SERVICE
THE BLESSING OF THE RINGS

Before the entrance of the sanctuary, the bride stands at the right hand side of the groom.

PRIEST: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

PEOPLE: May His grace and mercy be upon us, weak and sinful, in both worlds, forever. Amin.

INTRODUCTORY PRAYER

PRIEST: O Lord God, make us worthy of Your imperishable joy, for You are the source of our joy and the fulfillment of our gladness. May our souls and spirits exult in You and by Your compassion, abolish our distress. By Your mercy, increase our virtues, shower Your blessings upon us and enrich our minds. Perfect our bridegroom and make our bride glorious so that along with all of Your Saints, who have forever pleased You, we may rejoice with You in everlasting bliss. Together with the congregation of Your Saints and the company of Your beloved, we will offer up glory and praise to You, O Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

PEOPLE: Amin.

PSALM 51

Have mercy on me, O God, / in Your loving kindness; / in the abundance of Your mercy / blot out my sin.

Wash me thoroughly from my guilt / and cleanse me from my sin. / For I acknowledge my fault / and my sins are before me always.
Against You only have I sinned / and done evil in Your sight, / that You may be justified in Your words / and vindicated in Your judgment. / For I was born in guilt / and in sin did my mother conceive me.

But You take pleasure in truth / and You have made known to me the secrets of Your wisdom. / Sprinkle me with Your hyssop / and I shall be clean; / wash me / and I shall be whiter than snow.

Give me the comfort of Your joy and gladness, / and the bones, which have been humbled, shall rejoice. / Turn away Your face from my sins and blot out all my faults.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, / and renew Your steadfast spirit within me. / Do not cast me from Your presence / and take not Your Holy Spirit from me.

But restore to me Your joy and Your salvation / and let Your glorious spirit sustain me; / that I may teach the wicked Your way / and sinners may return to You.

Deliver me from blood, O God, / God of my salvation / and my tongue shall praise Your justice. / O Lord, open my lips / and my mouth shall sing Your praise.

For You do not take pleasure in sacrifices; / by burnt offerings You are not appeased. / The sacrifice of God is a humble spirit, / a heart that is contrite God will not despise.

Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion / and build up the walls of Jerusalem. / Then shall You be satisfied with sacrifices of truth / and with whole burnt-offerings; / then shall they offer bullocks upon Your altar.

And to You belongs the praise, O God. Barekmor. (Bless, Lord)

Glory to the Heavenly Bridegroom, Who chose the Church, the daughter of the Gentiles, for Himself; Who purified her from all imperfections and impurities with His innocent blood; Who betrothed the earthly Church to Himself and became her Bridegroom; Who saved her from the slavery of impure and evil spirits and set her free from all her debts and sins. Blessed is the Lord, Who invited all the Gentiles and all peoples: the Prophets, Apostles, and all races, to the wedding feast of His Church. To Him belongs glory and honor at this time of the blessing of the rings of His servants, and at all festivals, times, seasons, hours, and all the days of our lives, forever.

SEDRO

O God, Who is exalted and beyond the understanding of all men; Who is always abundant in His goodness; and distant from every evil; and Who is the source of divine blessings. You are the One Who adorned Your creation and made her glorious and helped her by Your loving-kindness. You have accepted her earnest faith in You, according to her potential. You have granted imperishable blessings to Your Holy Church and graciously filled her with sweet fragrance and enriched her abundantly with divine blessings. You have clothed her with the garment of glory and betrothed her by Water and Spirit. You have made her Your bride and fiercely trampled upon the head of the enemy. You have given her Your Body and innocent Blood as a ring of purity. You have filled her with joy and gloriously illumined her with Your brilliant light. You have divinely granted that she may dwell with You. You have kept her in perfect order through Your holy Apostles.
O True Bridegroom, You are the One, Who established that the joy of men and women be perfected by the ring. By these rings, may this betrothal attain perfect joy. At this time, O Lord God, bless these rings \( \heartsuit \) that we, Your weak and sinful servants bless with joy. We beseech You, O Lord, to bless these rings \( \heartsuit \), which were profane and consecrate them by Your grace. O God, bless these rings \( \heartsuit \) with Your divine blessings as You have blessed the ring of Your Holy Church.

O Lord God, perfect this bridegroom, our son, and this bride, our daughter, and fill them with wisdom. By Your compassion, keep away from their marriage, all kinds of faults and defilements. O God, bestow upon them Your gladness in this world, and in the world which is to come. Adorn them in manifold ways during this temporal wedding feast all the days of their lives. But, above all, guide them graciously to Your heavenly feast, where the Watchers and the angels rejoice unceasingly. O Lord, by Your love, free this congregation, which is present before You, from all sins and offences, from all blemishes and faults. May they be blessed by You and may they bless You. May they stand before You and unceasingly glorify You, and Your Father, and Your Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

PRIEST: From God, may we receive remission of debts and forgiveness of sins in both worlds, forever.

PRIEST: O Bridegroom of Truth and Justice, to Whom the Virgin and pure souls are betrothed, make these servants worthy, who stand before Your majesty and who have made You the mediator of their matrimony through us, who are weak and sinful, that the sweet fragrance of virtue may rise up from them. May peace and concord, true love and perfect unity reign among them. Strengthen them that they may preserve their purity for each other, both in soul and body, and grant that they may offer up glory and praise to You, and to Your Father and to Your Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

PEOPLE: Amin.

BLESSING OF THE RINGS

The deacon holds the rings and the priest says the following prayer.

PRIEST: Glory be to the ✞ Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, Who blesses these rings by His grace and abundant mercy, forever.

PEOPLE: Amin.

The priest waves his hands over the rings and says aloud:

PRIEST: For the fulfillment of the joy of the children of the Holy Church, these rings are blessed.

In the Name of the Father, ✞ and of the Son ✞ and of the Living Holy Spirit. ✞ Amin.

The priest gives the ring to the bridegroom, saying the following prayer.
PRIEST: Through this ring of your betrothal, receive the grace and blessing of the Lord’s loving-kindness. May His right hand, full of grace, which grants blessings, be with You and protect You all the days of Your life.

PEOPLE: Amin.

The priest gives the ring to the bride, saying:

PRIEST: May the right hand of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is full of blessings, be mystically stretched out to you. Receive the ring of Your betrothal from the hand(s) of the holy priest(s) as though you receive it from the hands of the Holy Apostles. With the healing of your soul and body and with a joyful heart, may you offer praise to Him, and to His Father, and to His Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

PEOPLE: Amin.

PRAYER FOR THE BRIDEGROOM AND BRIDE

PRIEST: O Lord God, Who perfected the love of Your Church through Christ, in truth and justice, perfect these, our children, who are now betrothed to each other. Through these rings, which they have received, bestow upon them heavenly blessings, adorn them with chastity and make them noble with modesty. As You perfected the betrothal of Isaac and Rebecca with ornaments of gold, perfect the betrothal of these Your servants with the rings of righteousness. Gladden this bridegroom by the great joy of Your salvation. Adorn this bride with beautiful ornaments that neither perish nor become corrupt. Adorn them with the seal of purity, rather than with ornaments of gold.

O God, grant them harmony and the desire to please You. May they become mature in virtue. Remove from them all insincere love. Kindle their minds with the fire of Your love that they may love each other. Adorn them with imperishable beauty. Grant them strength to keep their conscience pure, which is more fragrant than sweet-smelling lilies. O God, save them from the hands of wicked and jealous men who hate humanity and deliver them from evil spirits that corrupt the purity of matrimony. Grant them times of prosperity and years of blessings.

_The priest turns back towards the east and says:_

Again, O Lord, hear the petitions of Your weak and sinful servants, who stand before Your Majesty. Grant this couple the blessing of children and times of joy. Multiply their blessings and good works. Strengthen them in the True Faith. Grant that they may continue to dwell in the Faith and entrust it to their children as an inheritance. May Your grace and blessings be upon those who are present for this wedding feast. By Your victorious Cross, protect this bridegroom and bride and shower Your mercy upon all of us, O Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

_The following hymn expresses the deep desire and the longing that the Church, the Bride, has for Christ, her Bridegroom. It narrates the journey of love as the Church searches for Christ, from Bethlehem to the Resurrection._

HYMN 4 – SUGITHO
_(omro ‘idath qudsho – sabhayaam thiru sabhayaam, page 39)_

I the Church am the true bride
Of the Most Exalted One.

1. “I am bless’d,” _exclaims_ the Church,
   “Who has truly _betrothed_ me?
   I worship the _True_ Bridegroom
   Who came down and _betrothed_ me.”
2. On that day He betrothed me
Creation was astonished,
For He made this poor girl rich.
Oh how He exalted me!

3. In the heights He established
A bridal chamber for me.
Where I may rejoice with friends
I am bless’d to confess Him.

4. He took me from idols and Revealed His Myst’ries to me.
He said, “I will be with you
Until the end of the world.”

5. The Son of the King gave me
All the riches that He brought.
Riches from His Father’s House
Therefore I will worship Him.

6. Woe to Satan who misleads
And corrupts me with idols.
Praise Jesus, Who redeemed me,
And Who has made me worthy.

7. In baptism He clothed me,
With armor of the Spirit,
And placed His Body and Blood
As the ring on my finger.

8. The groom resembles the sun
And the bride is like the day.
The marriage feast resembles
A tree which has great fragrance.*
(Solomon 2:13, Isaiah 61:10)

9. When I heard of His Good News
My mind burned with love for Him.
Even before seeing Him,
I confessed Him and was bless’d.
10. I searched out the sea and land
   No one told me where He was.
   I sought Him in Bethlehem
   But He had left for Egypt.

11. I went after Him with joy
   But when I came to Egypt,
   They told me that He left for Nazareth in Galilee.

12. I set out on a journey
   To find Him in Nazareth.
   When I reached there I was told,
   “He left for River Jordan.”

13. I had no fear of the way,
   Nor had I fear of robbers.
   I set out for the Jordan
   And searched for Him in the crowd.

14. Exhausted, I slept a while.
   When I awoke they told me,
   “The Bridegroom invites you to Come for the great wedding feast!”

15. I decided to go and Seek my Master at the feast.
   When I reached there I was served
   The good wine that He had made.

16. The groom and his friends asked me,
   “Holy One, whom do you seek?
   Your beloved is not here;
   He left for the wilderness.”

17. The fragrant breath of His love
   Illumined and gladdened me.
   I rushed to the wilderness
   And searched for him in the crowds.
18. I inclined my ear and heard
   A voice in the crowd saying,
   “Her belov’d has been raised up
   On the Tree on Golgotha.”

19. Overcome with grief I wept
    And ran to Zion for Him.
    When I reached there I was told
    He had been placed in a tomb.

20. Hearing this, I wept with pain
    And leaned my head on the Tree.
    An angel appeared saying,
    “Weep not for Christ is risen!”

21. I heard His voice and rejoiced
    And my face became radiant.
    I embraced Him and kissed Him;
    Lovingly He spoke to me.

22. “Come in peace, O Holy One,
    Whom I betrothed on the Cross.
    To My Father, I ascend;
    He shall send you the Spirit”

CONCLUDING PRAYER

PRIEST: O faithful brothers and sisters, may God reward you thirty, sixty and hundred fold for having witnessed this betrothal blessed by God. May He reward you with all good things and may the Cross of our Lord be with you always by night and by day and guard you from the Evil One and his hosts, now and always, forever and ever.

PEOPLE: O Merciful Lord, have mercy upon us and help us.

PRIEST: Make us worthy, O Lord God, to offer unto You praise and thanksgiving, glory and unceasing exaltation, continually and at all times and all seasons.

Glory to the Self-existent One, Who existed, exists and will exist forever; to the Eternal Word, Whom the angels above His throne, worship; to the Great and Exalted One, Who had pity on us all because of His abundant mercy; to the One Who turned our fallen human race back to Him and Who by His love, made our nature, which had alienated itself from Him, worthy of drawing near to Him; to the One Whom both philosophers and skeptics have no choice but to worship, for even they are unable to question or examine His Being; to the One Who plaits jeweled crowns for the princes; to One Who when He looses, everything remains loosed and when He binds, everything remains bound; to the Majestic One, Who confers crowns of joy to the bridegroom and the bride; to Him belongs glory and honor.
at this time of the blessing of the crowns of his servants and at all festivals, times, seasons, hours and all the days of our lives, forever.

SEDRO

PRIEST: O Lord God, Whom all the heavenly hosts glorify with fear and trembling; Whose greatness terrifies the fiery cohorts and makes them shudder in the heights above; Who by His abundant and ineffable compassion and infinite mercy, rejoices when we, who are poor, offer our praises; Who is pleased when we, who are weak and earthly, offer our service. O Lord, You are long-suffering, and Your desire is that we approach You with our needs, for You are quick to bestow gifts and slow to punish those who deserve chastisement.

O Lord God, bless Your servants who travel everywhere and dwell under the authority of Your greatness, especially these Your servants who stand present before You and take refuge in the shadow of Your loving-kindness and under the wings of Your compassion. Restore, save, and gladden Your servants that they may be virtuous in all their actions. Keep them and direct them in the path of Your Law that they may walk in Your Truth. Grant that they may follow the straight and narrow path, which leads to the Kingdom of Heaven. Grant that they may attain spiritual gifts and be diligent and earnest in their divine pursuit, which is profitable for both their bodies and their souls. O Lord God, grant that they may love eternal life and be distant from those who have fallen into the death of sin. Unite their hearts that they might draw near to Your holiness and flee from the slavery of the accursed Satan. Make us and them righteous laborers in Your spiritual vineyard, who are diligent in piety and zealous in observing Your commandments.
O Lord God, make us imitators of Your Saints; make us love one another and hate the evil one; make us obey Your Divinity and bless our enemies; make us, O Lord, worshippers of Your Majesty and ministers of Your Lordship. Grant rest, Lord, to our faithful departed, that they may rejoice in Your Heavenly Kingdom, for You are good and the lover of mankind. And we will offer up glory and praise to You, and to Your Father and to Your Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

He shall be cut off – from the Church.”
See perverse doctrines arise,
Springing forth from every side.
Bless-ed is he who begins
And ends in the Lord’s teachings.

DEACON: My brethren, the reading is taken from the Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians, Barekmor.

PEOPLE: Glory be to the Lord of the Apostle and may His mercy be upon us, forever.

DEACON: (Ephesians 5:20-6:3)

My brethren, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives, be subject to your husbands as you are to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, just as Christ is the head of the Church, the Body of which He is the Savior. Just as the Church is subject to Christ, so also wives ought to be, in everything, to their husbands.

Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the Church and gave Himself up for her, in order to make her holy by cleansing her with the washing of water by the word, so as to present the Church to Himself in splendor, without a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind, so that she may be holy and without blemish. In the same way, husbands should love their wives as they do their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one ever hates his own body, but he nourishes and tenderly cares for it, just as Christ does for the Church, because we are members of His body. “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” This is a great mystery, and I am applying it to Christ and the Church. Each of you, however, should love his wife as himself, and a wife should respect her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. “Honor your father and mother,” this is the first commandment with a promise: “so that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.”

Ahai Barekmor.

HYMN 9 – PETHGOMO (PSALM 21:1)

May the king rejoice in Your strength, O Lord
And greatly rejoice in Your salvation

READING OF THE GOSPEL

DEACON: With stillness, fear and purity, let us give heed and listen to the Good News of the living words of God, in the Holy Gospel of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that is read to us.

PRIEST: ☩ Peace be unto you all.

PEOPLE: Make us worthy, O Lord God, with Thy Spirit.
PRIEST: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, the life-giving proclamation from Saint Matthew, the Apostle, who preaches the good news of life and salvation to the world.

PEOPLE: Blessed is He Who has come and is to come. Glory be to Him who sent Him for our salvation, and may His mercy be upon us all, forever.

PRIEST: Now, in the time of the Dispensation of our Lord and our God and Savior Jesus Christ, the Word of Life, God who took flesh of the Holy Virgin Mary, these things thus came to pass.

PEOPLE: We believe and confess.

PRIEST: (Matthew 19:1-12)

When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. Large crowds followed Him, and He cured them there.

Some Pharisees came to Him, and to test Him they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?” He answered, “Have you not read that the One Who made them at the beginning ‘made them male and female,’ and said, ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.” They said to Him, “Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?” He said to them, “It was because you were so hard-hearted that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another commits adultery.”

His disciples said to Him, “If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry.” But He said to them,
“Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those to whom it is given. For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by others, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Let anyone who can accept this, accept it.”

❖ Peace be unto you all.

HYMN 10

(khad h-zothok – vandhya sleebaa, page 42)

When the Holy Church witnessed
The Great Sun of Righteousness
Raised upon the sacred Tree
Like the moon she stood in rank
And cried out befittingly,
“May the pow’r of Your Essence
Be glorified, Lord of all!”

BLESSING OF THE CROWNS

The priest waves his right hand over the crowns saying:

PRIEST: May the crowns and the heads upon which they are placed be blessed and perfected.

In the Name of the Father ❖ and of the Son ❖ and of the Holy Spirit, forever. ❖ Amin.
CROWNING OF THE BRIDEGROOM

The priest extols the crown three times above the bridegroom's head and chants the following hymn three times.

PRIEST
(kleelo bideh – vaaneen udayon)

By our Lord's hand, this crown – which descends from heaven
Is fitting and placed on – this groom's head by the priest.

1. By Your mercy, O Lord, – grant gladness with these crowns
To this bride and bridegroom – in their bridal chamber.

2. How splendid is the crown – plaited by Christ the King.
Which is placed by the priest – on the groom and the bride.

3. Christ, the True Bridegroom, Whose – wedding feast has no end,
Come quickly that we may – rejoice with You always.

The priest places the crown upon the bridegroom's head and says:

PRIEST: May the Lord crown you with the crown of righteousness, adorn you with imperishable beauty, and clothe you with invincible weapons to fight against all the powers of the enemy.

PEOPLE: Amin.
CROWNING OF THE BRIDE

The priest extols the crown three times above the bride's head and chants:

PRIEST
(kleelo bideh – vaaneen udayon)

By our Lord's hand, this crown – which descends from heaven
Is fitting and placed on – this bride's head by the priest.

PEOPLE
(hado moran – waydeeka shemmaashanmaar, page 42)

1. By Your mercy, O Lord, – grant gladness with these crowns
   To this bride and bridegroom – in their bridal chamber

2. How splendid is the crown – plaited by Christ the King.
   Which is placed by the priest – on the Groom and the Bride.

3. The groom's crown is like the – crown of thorns of our Lord;
   The bride's crown is like the – crown of the chaste women.

The priest places the crown on the bride's head and says the following prayer.

PRIEST:    May the Lord crown you with the crown of righteousness and adorn you with incorporeal beauty. May you rejoice all the days of your lives, offering up glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and always, and forever and ever.

PEOPLE:    Amin.
According to the ancient custom of India, the bridegroom ties a cross (minnu) around the neck of the bride. The deacons then sing the following hymn.

HYMN 11

(sleebo otho d-shayno – shubha chinam)

The Cross is the sign of peace – and the sign of victory
By the Cross we have been saved; – and in it we all glory

PRAYER FOR THE BRIDEGROOM AND BRIDE

PRIEST: May the Lord, Who is pleased with the lives of men, be pleased with your lives and bless your union. May Christ, the Heavenly Bridegroom, confirm your marriage in true matrimony. As Christ rejoices in His Holy Church, may you rejoice in each other. May His right hand of mercy rest upon you, overshadow you and protect you from all harm. May the angel of peace dwell with you and protect you from the deceit of the enemy. May God deliver you from envy, which leads to death and may He keep away all sorrow that you may rejoice together.

May the Lord God grant you righteous children that you may rejoice in them as Abraham rejoiced in Isaac, Isaac in Jacob and Jacob in Joseph. May the blessing, which God gave to Noah and his children saying, “Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth” be upon you. May the blessing that God gave to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob be upon You. May God bless you with the dew from heaven and with every good thing that the earth produces. May the blessing, which Jacob gave to his son, Joseph, saying, “May the God of your father help you,” be upon you. May the blessing of those who loved God and pleased Him be upon you, as well as upon the crowns, which have been placed on your heads today, by the hands of the priest.

May all the peoples rejoice and give glory for the Name of the Lord has been invoked upon you. May God make you abound in prosperity, possessions, and blessings. May God absolve your debts and sins as He absolved the sinful woman. May you become heirs of the Heavenly Kingdom, like the thief on the right hand side of our Lord. May all of our faithful departed be forgiven. May the Exalted One, Who descended to Mount Sinai and made the covenant with His bride, Whom He rescued out of Egypt, bless you and this congregation. Let us offer up glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and always, forever and ever.

PEOPLE: Amin.

4. May this congregation be bless-ed, forever, By the pray’rs of the Bless-ed Virgin and the Saints.

5. Bless Your servants, that with their mouths they might sing praise, And with their harps, worship You, with sincere praises.

6. O Lord, Who hears all and Who accepts earnest prayers, Hear our petition and have mercy on our souls.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

PRIEST: My beloved brothers and sisters, we have a custom, which we have received from our holy fathers and venerable ancestors: to admonish the faithful when we are gathered together in the house of God, and to confirm and command you, who stand before us, to be attentive to virtuous deeds and to be diligent in truth, righteousness, and good works.

Dear children, pay attention and know that you are standing before God, before the Table of Life and the Throne of our Lord Jesus Christ, before the Holy Cross, the Holy Gospel and before this entire congregation. Realize that you do not stand before One Who is ignorant, but before the One Who knows your hearts.

Behold, I now entrust you to one another.

Here the celebrant joins their right hands together.

May God be the witness between you and me, that I will not be responsible for anything you may do against His law. May the abundant grace and mercy of the Lord dwell and overshadow the bridegroom and bride, the guests and hosts, as well as the priests, deacons and all the faithful people.

Here the celebrant separates the hands.
FINAL EXHORTATION

PRIEST: My beloved faithful, realize that these commandments are for all of you who have gathered here today. Husbands, learn how your relationship with your wife ought to be. Remember that she has left her people and is now united to you. Therefore, you must please her and be compassionate towards her. Even if you are naked, you must clothe her; even if you are hungry, you must feed her; even if you are thirsty, you must provide her drink. Likewise, wives, you must act towards your husband as though he were your own soul. Have the mind to serve him as is fitting. In everything, behave with love and kindness towards him.

By the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Theotokos, and all the Saints who loved our Lord and kept His commandments, may the right hand of our Lord Jesus Christ dwell upon you and may His grace be with you and with us, forever.

PEOPLE: Amin.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven...

NICENE CREED

PRIEST: We believe in One, True God,

PEOPLE: The Father Almighty / Maker of heaven and earth / and of all things visible and invisible. And in One Lord Jesus Christ, / the Only-begotten Son of God / begotten of the Father, before all worlds, / Light of Light, / True God of True God, / begotten, not made, / being of One essence with the Father / and by Whom all things were made; Who for us men and for our salvation / came down from heaven.
And was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and of the Holy Virgin Mary, / Mother of God, / and became man.

And was crucified for us, / in the days of Pontius Pilate, / and suffered, and died, and was buried.

And on the third day He rose again / according to His Will, / and ascended into heaven, / and sits at the right hand of His Father, / and shall come again in His great glory, / to judge, both the living and the dead, / Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And in the One, Living Holy Spirit, / the life-giving Lord, of all, / Who proceeds from the Father, / and Who together, with the Father and the Son, is worshipped and glorified, / Who spoke through the Prophets and the Apostles. And in the one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

And we confess one baptism, for the remission of sins, / and we look for the resurrection of the dead / and the new life in the world to come. Amin.
